

Extract from David Martin's email of 30/Oct/09

Notes:

1. Massive vote of thanks to Naomi for sorting out the money. We are now able to write cheques and support great ideas and initiatives within the school.
2. Gillian has created an easy to fill template for applications for funding so teachers can benefit from the pile of cash we've saved up. Stuff up to £200 can be put through so money is available within the week. Bigger items up to £400 will still need discussed (via email) so might take a couple of weeks. Very big stuff (like technology for the library) will be taken to the PC for a decision as it arises.
3. Quiz night is definitely on for 4th December - thanks to Don.

More details for the quiz night, please read on as there are ACTIONS for all of you...

- ACTION for everyone: Can you all please note the date AND tell parents and teachers about it when you run into them and encourage them to come along.
- ACTION for me: The bar licence for Dec 4th is in hand as are tickets, flyers and posters (Isla I agreed with Tom and Graeme that I'd sort these so you're off the hook). Alcohol strictly for 21+yrs only.
- Tickets will be £3 for adults and free for children. Obviously no unaccompanied minors, but there should be space for seniors if they fancy putting in a team.
- 6.30pm open for 7pm sharp start. Everyone must be out of the building by 10.30pm at the latest which means the quiz needs to finish by 10pm to allow time for clean up. ACTION me and Don to discuss details. ACTION Sharee to sort out sound and picture system with Len.
- ACTION Sami and Hugh to contact the Chairs of our feeder primary schools and invite/encourage them to take a table each for the quiz.
- Alan suggested we might get one of the school bands (gig type not orchestra) to play during the break - ACTION: me to talk with Don to see if it is feasible.
- ACTION for everyone: There'll be a raffle so please rustle up prizes from local donors - if you can't make it to the Quiz Night you can still enter the raffle.
- ACTION Graeme to dig out his list of potential donors from last time.
- We are meeting again on 10th November to sort out details and again on 2nd December to do last minute stuff. Both meetings 6.30pm in the school - as ever all are welcome.

I think that's about it for now. If you have any ideas or suggestions please drop me and Sharee an email and we can circulate it round the BA group.
